The Marysville and Portland Railroad

The following is the text of "an bill granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the Central Pacific railroad in California to Portland in Oregon," as it finally passed the Senate being a substitute for the original bill:

Be it enacted, etc., That the California and Oregon Railroad Company organized under an act of the State of California to protect certain parties in and to a railroad survey to connect Portland, in Oregon, with Marysville, in California approved April 6 1863 and such company organ

The Daily Oregonian.

WEEKLY PAPER OF THE DAILY

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 20 1866

Oregon and California Railroad Bill

We publish in this issue the bill which passed the Senate on the 17th ult granting lands to aid in the construction of the Oregon and California Railroad The construction of this road at the earliest possible time is a matter which the people of the two States are deeply interested in but we would not give a grant for all the land which will or can be derived from this so called grant of lands, and those are some of our reasons for it

I There is little or no unclaimed land of value along the line of the proposed road and within twenty miles of it Every rood of land on the whole route, which is practically available for agricultural purposes, has long been claimed and the greater part of it, though not in actual cultivation, is occupied by actual residents The United States have no lands to donate to the company which are worth taking as a gift, and it is idle to look for any considerable aid from this grant in the construction of a railroad.

II The last section of the bill deprives the grant of that very feature which, otherwise, would give it its principal value The Government reserves the mineral lands (except those containing coal and iron) from the operation of the act, thereby retaining possession of the only lands along the route which are at its disposal that could in any way aid a company in building the road. This emasculates the bill of the only valuable feature in it. The public lands along the route are of no possible value only in so far as they may be found to abound in ledges which contain the precious metals, and it is believed that there are many localities on the line of the proposed road where the precious metals will be found to exist in such quantities as will be a source of profit to those who may undertake to work them. The late discovery of ores rich in gold and silver in Jackson county increase the possibilities of finding similar valuable deposits in other places, both in Southern Oregon and Northern California.

III. It will take money to build the road, and nothing but money will do it. A great portion of the route is quite as difficult as the railroad routes across the Alleghanies, and the assistance that could be derived from a donation of lands by Congress, even if the lands possessed a real value, would be comparatively trifling.

IV. The act requires the entire work to be completed by the year 1875. If the capital were ready, it is doubtful whether the whole road could be finished in that time.

The road will eventually be built, but not until the lapse of many years. A more feasible enterprise for Oregon, and one that promises far more for the State, is the building of a Northern Pacific Railroad.

That we shall have a Willamette Valley Railroad in a few years, is quite within the compass of possibilities, and is a work we should strive for The far greater project of a railroad to California must necessarily wait until the two States become wealthier than they are now.

Spirit of the Copperhead Press.

The New York Day Book in an article on "The Kentucky Democracy," uses the following language, showing very plainly why all this fury is raised about the immediate admission of the Southern representatives:

The Democratic party now is in the position of a great army that is divided, with a cunning, sagacious and skillful antagonist within a small army between its two grand divisions, I sepung it divided. The problem now is to get our army together. We are whipped in detail. One grand division cannot be brought into action at all, and we can never hope to win a permanent victory until we secure the aid of our allies. The practical issue this fall is, therefore, the re-admission of the Southern States into Congress, and upon this issue we must plant ourselves.

In another article intended to show the necessity of "killing off the abolition monster," the Day Book says:

Even those gallant but feeble efforts of Mr. Calhoun (in 1832,) were so far-fetched and mistaken, that they rather aided to its strength and security than otherwise. Who cares now for the "three-fold rule," or the "force and theory," or "equilibrium" of the sections, or indeed for any of those logical and fine essays of Mr. Calhoun on the science of government? He did, however, propose a grand defence against the Abolition demon, and if he had sternly stood by it (secession) and kept the followers up to it, he might have placed his section on tenable ground, even if not able to ward off the final conflict.

The New York News, (Ben. Wood's paper) in an article on "Mr. Davis and the Judiciary Committee," uses the following language, which illustrates the kindly temper of Democrats towards the arch-traitor:

It is no earnest of the negligence that characterizes the conduct of the charges against Mr. Davis on the part of the Judiciary Committee, that that body, to which were delegated the resolutions looking to the trial of the ex-President of the Confederate States for "treason," has been seeking to make out a case against him as being an accomplice in the killing of Mr. Lincoln, instead of attending to the resolutions that were referred to it. The reason of this is plain. The same blood-thirsty spirit that brought the heads of the best and noblest of France level with the dust, during the mob rule of the revolutionary Directory, is now seeking to destroy Mr Davis, at all hazards, if possible, by attempting to impute to him a crime that he is far less able to commit than those who pretend to judge him.

The indictment against Mr. Davis for "treason" is the work of Underwood. Thad. Stevens would bring him to the block, if possible, through the assassination charges; but as this miserable pretense has not even the shadow of a decent probability to support it, his enemies are compelled to take what comfort they can out of the accusation of "treason." However his trial may end, the infamy of the Judiciary Committee will remain a part of the history of the times.

In what consists the "infamy" of the Judiciary Committee, is not easily seen, except it be that it did not at once, report Davis exonerated from even the suspicion of crime or blame, both as to the charge of complicity with the assassination and the charge of treason. The tone of the leading Democratic press—including the Lafayette Courier and the Herald of Portland—leans most decidedly toward the declaration that "Jeff. Davis has been guilty of no crime."

The World begins an article on the approaching trial of Jeff. Davis, with the words, "What is Mr. Davis to be tried for?" After an ingenious effort to show that no practical good can come of trying him at all, and hinting broadly that in case of conviction, Johnson stands ready with a pardon as a dernier resort, the World inquires again:

Why should there be a trial at all? Why not enter a nolle prosequi and let the prisoner go at large?

In the course of an article in the New York World, to show why Jeff. Davis should not be tried, it is stated that the people of Virginia are so unanimous in the opinion that his conduct during the rebellion was not criminal—so unanimous are they in sympathy with him, that a jury could not be empanneled which would pronounce a verdict of "guilty." Yet the World, the flesh and the Devil of the Democratic persuasion, are moving every possible stone to secure the people of Virginia in the possession of every political privilege enjoyed by people who believe that Jeff. Davis has committed treason and that treason is a crime. The World might have added that the copperheads over all the North are so fully in sympathy with Jeff. Davis that a jury could not be empanneled among them, which would find him guilty. If the copperheads of Oregon could have their full wishes, Jeff Davis would not remain in prison another hour and within a week would be back in the U S Senate—to vote for the restoration of rebels and traitors to power in the Government

The Washington correspondent of the Bulletin mentions the possession of "intellectual respectability" as one of the obstacles, at present, in the way of obtaining an appointment at the hands of the President Very few, however, of his lately found friends are likely to meet with any trouble on that score.

Col. Charles S Lovell, lately in command at the Post of Fort Vancouver, is ordered to the command of the District of Arizona.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO June 18—The number of deaths in this city last week were forty nine

The examination of Thomas H Duane charged with the accomplice of Chas Dunne, in the murder of C L Ross, was resumed in the police court at half past 2 o'clock this afternoon. Charles Dunne the principal in the homicide was brought up in the afternoon as a witness in the case of his brother, and was stilled while attending the funeral between the Dunnes and Ross, on the day previous that such might be the case. He stated that on that occasion, C L Ross attempted to shoot him and would have done so had not the cap of the gun failed to explode.

Hamill a dealer in hides and wool while driving into town on Saturday evening last had his buggy run down by a band of cattle crossing the San Jose track He was knocked senseless and sustained serious injuries

Monetary.

The gloomy state of affairs reflected in New York from Europe appears to thicken Private despatches report great excitement in the gold market on Saturday that price vibrating between 166@169 closing late in the day at 166 Gold for delivery was very scarce, and temporary sums for bridging over were freely effected at 1/64 per cent a day The shipments of treasure continued on a very heavy scale there is little to say against the rates of exchange, rates for which were quite nominal London rates to the 7th report a continuance of the panic The rates of discount remained steady, but cotton had fallen heavily and trade was to a large extent paralyzed The inevitable certainty of European war has created a monetary disturbance in the chief centres of the continent Gold is quoted at various places from 15 to 4 per cent premium Silver, though not so much sought after, is quoted at from 6 to 10 per cent premium The national bank of Berlin is keeping all its resources for Government and has discontinued discounting private bills, but the rate throughout Germany and France remain much lower than in London Manufactures and business generally in Germany, except in the districts that are affected by army contracts, are very dull So far as we can discover the disturbances abroad have had no effect here, except a limited depression of legal tenders, San Francisco indebtedness abroad is more than usually light Our business men not having been drawn into the vortex which is creating consternation in Europe and threatens to involve commercial interests in the Atlantic cities to a serious extent Money for all legitimate purposes continues abundant and there is no disposition among bankers to tighten the lines The feeling among shrewd observers is, that in the event of an actual commencement of hostilities in Europe, the United States will hardly fail to reap vast commercial advantages through our carrying trade, and the influx of foreign capital will be a means of greater safety just as American capital went to Europe during the rebellion, and French capital sought our shores during the Napoleonic wars.

The California, Oregon and Mexico Steamship Co's new ocean steamer Orizimbo is now ready for sea, and will be dispatched for Portland to-morrow noon on her first trip under her present management The Orizimbo is a side wheel steamer with two masts, square rigged for sail. She was built in New York in 1864, and in the fall of that year arrived out and was put in the Chinese coasting trade about a year, displaying her sailing qualities in several typhoons, which gave to her a character for staunchness not possessed by many other vessels, as their shattered wrecks have sadly testified Upon being purchased by her present owners, she was brought to this port, arriving here some four months ago. Since that time she has received a thorough overhauling and would now hardly be recognized as the same steamer. She will be under command of Capt. Francis Connor.

About 10 o'clock this morning some boys reported to Officer Carpenter that a man was lying at the point of death in some bushes on a vacant lot near Pacific and Franklin streets. On going to the spot the officer found the man dead

A telegraphic dispatch from Superintendent Pelton, dated Donner Lake, yesterday, says: "We arrived here Saturday evening after a very pleasant trip over the mountains from Pelley's Station. The scenery on the way was grand beyond description. Have enjoyed our stay here, and the moonlight rides on the lake exceedingly. Visited the Donner cabins and Truckee river yesterday until about noon—left there starting on our return. Crystal Lake, Dutch Flat and Alabaster Cave. Party all well and in great Glee"

The Spring Valley Water Co. have elected the following trustees J. Parrott, H. Dexter, L. Lewis, C Mayne, W. F. Babcock N. Luning, James Bell The said trustees elected Charles Wayne President and H. Watson Secretary. Judge Hoffman to-day ordered a decree of condemnation in the case of five whisky stills and a boat five hundred gallons of whisky which had been seized for violation of the internal revenue law.

The new steamboat built by Mr. Cozzens for S. B Whipple will be launched at North Point to-morrow afternoon, between 5 and 6 o'clock. No shipment of bread stuffs to Australia has yet been reported for the present season. Late arrivals from the colonies brought with them orders for grain which they scarcely feel justified in having filled in view of the present condition of the markets there and the near approach of our incoming harvest. The Keying returned yesterday to Australia in ballast. Others will doubtless follow, or await further orders before starting in other directions.

The examination of John Duane for complicity in the killing of Ross was concluded in police court last evening, and will be argued on Friday afternoon next, Chas. Duane was put upon the stand as a witness in behalf of his brother He still insists that Ross was armed, and claims to have seen a pistol in the hands of Ross.

It is reported that a prize fight for $200 a side is projected to come off to-morrow in San Mateo county, between two notorious shoulder hitters.

Gaven J. W. Gibb has filed his petition of insolvency His liabilities are $5,600, with no assets He started a paint mill last January with a capital of $5,000, but the business proving unprofitable, and bad debts, depreciation in currency and daily expenses having eaten up more than the profits, he is unable to meet his obligations

As the steamer Chrysopolis was passing the Brothers last night the cry was raised, man overboard, and boats were immediately lowered but after searching an hour no trace was found. He must have drowned. The affair was mysterious, as was the question whether the man fell overboard accidentally or committed suicide One story is, he came aboard at Rio Vista, and laid down on the main deck, but finally crawled out through the forward railing and jumped overboard. Another version is, that his hat blew off, and he fell into the water while trying to catch it It is supposed that he was instantly killed by the boat's paddle wheel He was unknown to all on board the boat

The mining share market continues to have a downward tendency From the morning boards of yesterday stocks have declined as follows: Ophir $25, Yellow Jacket $22 50, Belcher $15, Chollar Potosi $8 Bullion $1 50, and Confidence and Overman each, $1

THE TRIAL OF JEFF DAVIS.—In view of the approaching trial of Jeff Davis for treason, at Richmond the following from the Examiner is interesting as showing the light in which the trial will be regarded by the adherents of the "Lost Cause" and its representative head It says

When the man whom we placed at the head of our understanding shall be tried for the share in that of which we were all participants—as it is matter of willing, perhaps than is—every one will keenly feel that it is only for him that is with out offence to cast the first stone More than that, all will be ready to regard the charge of treason with indignant emotion Allegiance was due only to the States and any duty arising from the Union only because the Individual through the States The States solved all obligations beyond how at her will, and all who obeyed the State did nothing but what patriotism justified The people believed this doctrine before the war and force has not changed their conviction Courts may instruct, but as juries here have always exercised the right to judge the law even in a matter of debate and costs, they will not forego that privilege in a trial that involves the life of their representative man and the common honor of Individuals and States The committee—the whole world—may rest confident that Virginia gentlemen can under no circumstances connect that Jefferson Davis be made the scape-goat of a whole people As never."

FROM IDAHO

The 14th ins Index of the 9th furnishes the following items

THE RISING STAR QUARTZ MILL

This mill is not a myth. Quartz has been found in Flint district and is owned by C L Fogus & Co We learn that they have sunk a shaft about sixty feet and struck a fine vein It is from three to five feet wide The quartz is very rich and is perhaps the richest lode in Boise basin. There is a similar vein at work getting out rock. It is the intention of the Company to erect a mill at the lode the present season

SALTS WORKS LODE

We learn that the proprietors of the salt works lode are progressing finely in the development of the same. Within the last sixty days a tunnel in sinking shafts running cross cuts and getting out quartz which pays well The Flint 10 Mill is now said will soon commence crushing the quartz

THE BALTIC LODE

Baltic Lode is situated on the west side of Wild Eagle Mountain and not present, being worked by a number of men taking out quartz of the richest character The quartz has been proving a most paying one. The lines are owned by Messrs Chamberlain & Co. Work is progressing upwards which will be completed by the 1st of July

RICH QUARTZ IN FLINT

We learn that a company organized in Philadelphia have purchased in Flint district 1,800 feet of Brown Gold Virginia City lode; 1,200 Daybee, 1,200, Winslow 1,200 Rochester 1,200 I S Grant, 2,000, extra for Rochester 1,000, making in all 7,800 feet For the sum of $78,000

The World of the 9th furnishes the following

SUICIDE OF MINE HANGING

It is rumored that two more were recently found dead in Camas Prairie—upon all lines of Vigilantism The operations of this fund appear to be kept secret and but little is known of their proceedings at this distance from the scene of action. Several men have been strung up by the now lording wretches Has a long list that has no turning

VARIOUS ITEMS

The Supreme Court is in session at Boise City—Judge McBride presiding Several Attorneys from Idaho City, have gone below to look after cases on appeal

Last week the French company working near Pine Grove, took out $6,000 for one week's wash

The White claims continue to pay as usual

Hon F D Hollister is expected here to-day

The report that Judge Wilson and party have been murdered is not confirmed

FROM WALLA WALLA

We clip the following items from the Statesman of the 15th:

A SAW MILL BURNED

We learn that the steam saw-mill, situated in the Blue mountains some fifteen miles from this city, and owned by Messrs Locke & Young, took fire and burned to the ground on Wednesday night 13th inst We have not yet learned the particulars as to the origin of the fire but understand a considerable quantity of lumber was also burned, taking fire from the burning mill

CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH

If the Fourth of July should, by any chance fail to get well celebrated here in Walla Walla, it will not be for any lack of plenty of preparation We are informed by one of the committee on the financial arrangements, that they have received subscriptions amounting in all, to over twenty six hundred dollars Of this amount, over one thousand dollars is in cash and the balance is in donations consisting of pigs, calves, chickens sheep, pies, cakes and other things Messrs J H Lamkin and D Mix, have been selected by the committee as Orators of the day.

STATE ITEMS

Charles B Darwin of Iowa, lately appointed Associate Judge for Washington Territory, arrived by the Oriental He starts the morning for Olympia to assume his office

Orders are said to have been received for the immediate muster out of all the Oregon soldiers—both Cavalry and Infantry Those lately stationed at Walla Walla and other posts above, are already on the way down.

Judge Rumsey of the Dalles and member elect of the House of Representatives, is about to test the practicability of a steamboat line from Fort 'd Oreille Lake to Jacko.

About the Blackfoot Country.

A gentleman, whose statements may be relied on, and who has spent some time in the Blackfoot country, furnishes the Walla Walla Statesman the following in relation to that section, and points this side.

BITTER ROOT VALLEY

This valley contains a population of about 400 The lands suitable for agricultural purposes are considered equal, if not superior, to those of the Hell Gate Valley The farmers realize good profits from their crops They are not compelled to hunt after a market, that they have all their very doors The mining camps and trade from the adjacent mining camps are constantly calling, and freighting away at remunerative prices The valley is pretty well settled up, the most desirable portion of the farming lands where water can be easily obtained for irrigating, being secured. Still, at the other ends of the valley, or about 25 miles from Fort Owen, there is quite a large portion of land which still remains vacant this has been considered a little too far away from market; but before another season rolls around every foot of land in the entire valley will be taken up The great increase of population in the mining portion of the Territory, will call for more vegetables than the limited farming lands of the valley can produce. From the amount of wheat sown this year a crop of ten thousand bushels is expected, provided the crickets and grasshoppers do not destroy it—they have already appeared in great numbers

HELL GATE VALLEY.

This valley is about fifty miles long and from two to five wide, a large portion of which is considered good agricultural land. At present there are about one hundred farms which are being cultivated, some of which are very extensive One great drawback has been the want of seed Last year there was about 600 bushels of wheat raised in the valley; it is thought the amount will be doubled this year. All kinds of vegetables grow and yield well where there is plenty of water for irrigating Quite a number of families from the Western States arrived there late last fall, and have taken up claims, and some have already crops in The mines lying in close proximity to the valley afford farmers a ready market for all they can raise

MISSOULA CITY

This town is located at the head of Hell Gate valley It was located last fall. Messrs Higgins & Worden are the principal traders They have a saw mill in operation, turning out about 5,000 feet of lumber every twenty-four hours They are also building a flour flouring mill, with two run of burrs, which, when finished, will cost about $20,000. The machinery is now on the way from St. Louis The town at present contains about twenty-five buildings, and will increase as soon as lumber can be obtained from the mill. The town presents quite a city-like appearance, having been surveyed and laid out by Mr. Walter Johnson, formerly of Walla Walla.

Mr. Frank Bloody, formerly of Walla, and now county clerk of Missoula, has a fine ferry boat on the river, opposite the city This was established for the benefit of the residents of the Bitter Root valley, and also to accommodate the travel through via the Lolo trail

The San Francisco Examiner thus defends the act of secession

No one can point to a single instance where the Southern States or their representatives ever sought to invade or interfere with the rights or institutions of those of the North They entered into the Federal Union on the express understanding that property in African labor should be recognized and protected by the General Government It was a solemn compact among the States without which no Union could have been formed When, therefore, a majority of the Free States, nullified the act of Congress to carry out an express provision on this subject—an act too that had been pronounced constitutional by a unanimous Supreme Court—it was a rejection by them of the National Compact, and left the States, whose guarantee I rights had been thus ignored, free to form other alliances and adopt other securities * * *

Now, the upshot of all this is, that it is idle twaddle to talk about treason and traitors. The Southern people, in no sense of the word, were traitors.

The New York Tribune says

Some of the officers of the Boston National Bank of Washington are officers of the Johnson National Union Club

The "National Johnson party" is as badly busted as the bank, and has fewer assets

RELIGIOUS ANNIVERSARIES.—The annual meeting of the Oregon Tract Society will be held at the Congregational Church in this city to-day at 7 o'clock P. M. The Oregon Congregational Association will also meet at the same place to-morrow, to continue over Sunday. The early services of the meeting will be held this evening.

There will be a business meeting of this society at the M. E. Church at 10 o'clock A. M., and in the evening an address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Wyeth, of Salem, upon the formation of the Oregon Bible Society. This body has, by its agents and through various organizations, kept a good supply of Scriptures accessible to the people of Oregon. It has given many copies to the poor, and has sent some funds to the American Bible Society to aid the work of giving the Bible to the whole world. It still seeks the co-operation of the benevolent in this respect. As it is the 50th, or jubilee, year of the parent society, general interest should attend this anniversary. The Oregon Tract Society has also, by agents, colporteurs, and Sabbath schools, furnished many millions of pages of the best religious publications to the people of the State since 1848. The importance of such an agency, especially for Sabbath school purposes, cannot be questioned. The Oregon Congregational Association, which meets to-morrow at the Congregational Church, is kindred in its doctrine and politics with the "Pilgrim Fathers," and the Puritans of England, who strived to draw their principles of religion and civil government directly from the Holy Scriptures. For eighteen years this body has aimed to set forth the same truths in Oregon. The meetings will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. There will be religious services every evening, and the public are invited to attend day and evening.

POLITICS.—With Monday night the personal and political struggles and contentions for place—which had a beginning in the canvass for State officers and members of Congress—closed in Portland with the polls of the city election. In order to keep up the excitement to newer scenes, persons picked the ring up from where the political clique had put it down and carried the war further into Africa than was the previous case in other respects. We heard of three saloon fights, and one street fight but no one particularly engaged are as "highly responsible" on ordinary occasions, we suppress names. In the city, where we boast of good behavior on the part of our own citizens, pugilistic efforts should be left entirely to the "floating population," who "do" enough for all practical purposes.

OSWEGO IRON WORKS.—Mr. H. C. Leonard returned by the steamer Oriunbo on Monday night, bringing with him the machinery necessary for the Oregon Iron (smelting) Works, at Oswego, now in course of erection. But a few months can elapse before the company will be prepared to export a quality of iron having no superior in this or any other country, unless we are greatly mistaken in our ideas, based upon the reports of actual tests of the material from which their products are to be manufactured. We regard this as one of the most important branches of business yet projected in our State, and consider that all who have the interest of Oregon at heart, will look upon the enterprise as the harbinger of better days.

A GOLDEN WEDDING.—The Advocate of Saturday has the following: "On Monday last, Mr. and Mrs Loffer who reside near St. Helens, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day. The friends were on hand, tendering their hearty congratulations and tokens of affectionate regards. Mr L. is seventy-one years old and Mrs L. nearly as old. Having lived virtuously and uprightly, they are now happy in their green old age.

"May they sun in smiles decline,
And bring a pleasing night."

LOST AND FOUND.—On Saturday last Mr. H. Parker, of Walla Walla, on the boat between the Dalles and the Cascades, lost his satchel containing valuables to the amount of over $3,000. It might possibly have been taken through mistake by parties leaving at a landing above the Cascades. Or it might have been rifled of its contents and the sack dropped overboard. Mr. P returned with the boat to look after his lost goods, which were found safe and undisturbed, having been taken off at a landing above the Cascades through mistake.

HOSTILITY RECREATION.—At the solicitation of numerous friends of the 14th Infantry Band, Professor T. G. Thomas, which is to leave this Military District by the Oriental on Friday evening for Arizona, Capt. Turnbull, of the steamer Pioneer Town, has consented to give a moonlight excursion to Vancouver on Thursday night, leaving the Lincoln House wharf at 7½ o'clock. The famous band of the 14th Infantry will accompany the excursion, and as being the last opportunity to hear them, no doubt there will be a large attendance. The simple announcement will be sufficient to ensure a good attendance. Tickets have been fixed at $1,00. See advertisement.

COUNTY COURT.—E. D. SHATTUCK, Judge. Thursday, June 28th, 1866. Court met at the usual hour. The grand jury returned "not a true bill" in the case of the State vs. John Kelly, and defendant was discharged.....A decree was granted in the case of Hannah E. Wood vs. Wood.....In the matter of Thomas Tibbus sr. vs. Tibbus, et al., an order was made for a partition of certain of the lands of the Wm Blackstone claim, and Messrs. C. S. Silver, J. P. O. Lownsdale, and C. W. Savage were appointed commissioners to make the partition.....C. H. Main vs. John Sax, tried by jury and submitted.

PAPERS.—Messrs. White & Baker, News Agents, 413 Washington street, San Francisco, have often extended favors to this establishment, in forwarding to us the latest Western and European publications, books, magazines, etc., for which we now make acknowledgements more than thanks. The attention of dealers is called to their card.

FRONT STREET.—The Nicolson pavement was started on Front street north of Pine, yesterday afternoon. One block will be completed at present, in order that there may be no delay with that portion of the contract later in the fall, on account of the buildings in process of erection in that vicinity.

CATTLE FOR PEASHOOPOO.—A band of 300 fat cattle, which were stolen and yearlings, owned by Wm. Emery, will be taken on board the O. S. N. Co.'s stock-boat this morning on their way to Blackfoot. The band was gathered in Lane and Douglas counties.

THANKS.—Friend McCormick, of the Franklin Book Store, has placed us under obligations for a large roll of late Eastern papers and periodicals. Frank Leslies' Lady's Magazine, and all the favorites may be found at the Book Store.

LIGHT AT WORK.—The North Portland mills of Messrs. Murbaugh & Stitzel are again in full operation, the water having so far receded as not to work against business. These mills turn out an excellent quality of lumber, give full measurement, and sell at the lowest market rates.

INSTALLATION.—The officers elect of the Grand Lodge of Oregon will be installed to-day, we understand, at 3 o'clock P. M. The ceremony will take place at Lappeus & Knowles' New Hall. Rev. F. N. Hyland will deliver the oration.

MISCELLANEOUS STORAGE.—It is reported that the use of manure in the streets of Paris having been condemned by the physicians as unwholesome, M. Haussmann has determined to pave the roads in future with other materials.

SAN JUAN.—The following sentences were passed in Steilacoom's Court yesterday: John Doe Watson, two days for drunkenness; John Carty, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, James Graves ditto, two days each.

WARRIORS EN ROUTE.—The telegraph informs us that the steamer left San Francisco yesterday for Portland. The Oriental, under command of Capt. Connor, will leave today for Portland.

CORRECTIONS.—Two errors occurred in the report of the city election yesterday. The vote for Mr. Hallock was 236. The total vote of the city was 1,010.

BEER was given with the Democratic party was a vote for Andrew Johnson.—Herald.

Suppose that, just before the election, Andrew Johnson had made another speech and had said "Traitors must be made odious," "Traitors must be punished," "I will try them (Jeff. Davis & Co.,) as traitors, and, if found guilty, hang them as traitors"—how many Democratic newspapers or stump-mouthers would have claimed a Democratic vote for Johnson? How many of you gave him even a tacit support when he talked it? But why? You did not think it constitutional to use such language or to do the acts he threatened, did you? When he turned traitor to the party which elected him, which beat you at the elections with one hand and whipped the rebels with the other, when he began to relieve rebels from danger and then to reward them, when he began his efforts to make loyalty odious and to exalt treason into something akin to virtue—then, and not till then, did you begin to support Johnson and to class votes given with the Democratic party as for Johnson. Suppose that Johnson were to begin again next week to talk as he did in 1864-5, when the policy was comprised in the words, loyal men shall govern the preserved Republic," how long would you hang on to his coat tail? About how long would you claim that a vote for the Democratic party is a vote for Johnson?

"TEMPUS FUGIT"—TIME FLIES. It is well that we should all be admonished of the truth of the above Latin quotation. In view of that fact go to ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL'S GALLERY, 89 First Street and get your features transferred to those beautiful styles of CARD PHOTOGRAPHS, SUN PEARLS, MELAINO TYPES, AMBROTYPES, etc.

The reason why so many die with Consumption is because they neglect to use the proper remedy in season. B. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, dizziness after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities and warranted to produce an immediate and perfect effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supercede all other tonics wherever a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhœa and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sarsaparilla, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of imitations. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is by criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

G. VENARD,

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior products for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody but retail, but only adds to the favorable opinion of it consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

OUR CONNECTION AS PARTNERS OF

Reconstruction

BY JOSEPH BRENTON

We're got an awful row to hoe
In this ere Jeff reconstruction
Folks dunno where's where we go
When the ruction is ghost to be settled
But one thing's clear—there ain't room
For we pay hard ticket white and black,
Where the old nigger can be tucked in,

No white man sits in birth's proud niche
That I ain't willin' to own as brother,
An' if he's help'ened to strike it
I dunno, fix it, but I notice
An Peebles, long's they vote all right,
Though they ain't as strict as me and white
I'm bilin' one on good 'n another

Wot er there left I'd like to know,
Ef't ain't the diff'rence in color,
To keep up self respect an' show
The human natur of a feller?
Wot good in bein' white, unless
It's lifted by how not let to grieve,
Thet we are smarter an' they darker?

Ef we're to have our ekal rights,
"I want dat I can no compatrit n
Th' ole debt down for bein' whites
Ain't safe unless we stop th' cussed in
O' these nor notus whose speech base
Is human natur', 'thout no trace
O' shape, nor color, nor condition

So fur I'd writ an' couldn't lodge
Aboard wot hear I'd hot take postage,
My leadin all mhcement, 'thout no edge
Upon 'em more'n them is a sausage,
But now it seems ez though I see
Suthin resemblin' an idee,
Seein Johnson a speech an' veto message

I like the speech best, I confess
The logic, prudence an' ghod taste on 't;
An' it's so kind, I cuther guess
There's some dependence to be placed on 't,
It's narrer, but 'twixt you an' me,
One o' the allies o' J. D.
A temp'ry party can be based on 't

Jee' to hold on till Johnson's chen'
An' dug his Presidential grave in,
An' then! who knows but we could skew
The country rout' to put in
Wun't some folks race to see when we pull
Out o' their eyes their Union wool
An' turn 'm wut p p'lit'cle shave is!

O, did it seem 's of Providence
Could ever send a second Tyler?
To see the South all back to once,
Reapin' the spilea o the Breedler,
In cute er though an engineer
Skin'ful claim th' old iron for his shoer
Because 't was him that bust the biler!

That tells the story! That's wut we shall git
By trying squirtguns on the burnin' Pit;
For the day never comes when it'll do
To kick off duty like a worn out shoe,
I seem to hear a whisperin' in the air,
A slightin' like, of unexcused despair,
That comes from nowhere an' from everywhere,
An' seems to say: "Why died we! war'nt it then,
To settle, once for all, that man was men!
O, birth's sweet cup snatched from us barely tasted,
The grave's real child is feelin' life wuz wasted!
O' you we lef, long-lingerin' at the door,
Lovin' you best, coz we loved Her the more,
That Death, not we, had conquered, we should feel
Ef she upon our money turned her heel,
An' ungrateful throwed us all away
To flaunt it in a Blind Man's Holiday!"

General News.

The total value of military claims against the Government settled by the United States Sanitary Commission Army and Navy Claim Agency during April, was $271,099 79.

General John A. Dix is being talked of by the Democrats in some parts of the State as their candidate for Governor of New York. Dean Richmond is also spoken of.

The 125th Colored Regiment, Col. Duncan, passed through Topeka, Kansas, on the 10th inst., en route to Fort Union, New Mexico, accompanied by a train of 115 wagons.

George E. Badger of North Carolina is dead. He was Secretary of the Treasury under General Harrison, and afterwards a U. S. Senator for six years. He was an old-fashioned conservative Whig, and an able, honest man.

A New Orleans dispatch of May 16th makes the following announcement: Senator Gwin has arrived. He was released on parole without other conditions. He refused to take the oath or to leave the country. He is visiting his friends to-day.

Assistant Paymaster J. J. Philbrick, of the United States Navy, arrived in New York on the United States steamer Massachusetts on the 24th of April, since which time nothing has been heard of him at the Navy Department, and fears are entertained of his safety.

The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune pretends to have ascertained that of the Judges of the Supreme Court, Messrs. Chase, Miller, Swayne and Davis agree with Congress, and Messrs. Nelson, Grier, Clifford and Field agree with the President, as to the position of the Southern States and matters connected with reconstruction generally.

It is reported that Capt. Fox, the assistant Secretary of the Navy, will soon leave for Europe in the iron-clad Monitor Montonomah, for the purpose of personally presenting to the Emperor of Russia the resolution of Congress congratulating him on his escape from the hand of an assassin. It is generally believed in Europe that one of our Monitors cannot cross the Atlantic.

The sloop-of-war Lackawanna, recently equipped at the Brooklyn, New York, Navy Yard, and originally intended for the Eastern squadron, has been ordered to join the South Pacific squadron, and it was announced May 10th that she would sail for New York in a few days. The sloop-of war Pensacola, the flagship of the squadron, which was at the Brooklyn Navy Yard at the date above-mentioned, would be ready for sea in about two weeks.

Senator Sherman, from the Committee on Finance, reported, May 15th, a bill to reduce the rate of interest on the National debt and for funding the same, with an amendment which provides that the cost of disposing of the bonds shall not exceed one per cent of the amount. The provision before the amendment allowed two per cent. for preparing, issuing and disposing of such bonds. Mr. Sherman announced his intention of calling up the bill at an early day.

Wigfall of Texas has kept himself so close since the collapse of the Confederacy, that his whereabouts remained a mystery, until recently, when his arrival in Europe along with Toombs of Georgia, was announced. It appears that Wigfall has been all the while in Texas. Toombs, as already known, found an asylum in Cuba up to the time he set out for Europe. The select company, in Europe, of high-toned Southerners, of whom Mason, Slidell and Benjamin are the big chiefs, will doubtless rejoice in the acquisition to their circle of the chivalrous Wigfall and Toombs.

An Augusta, (Ga.) dispatch, of May 20th, says: Newspaper accounts from Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South and North Carolina, represent the growing crop of cotton as seriously impaired by cold weather, heavy rains and the overflow of cotton lands, and stands bad. Defective seed in a great measure is the cause of the failure. The growing cotton is looking yellow and sickly. Planters in consequence are despondent. Not more than a third of a crop will be realized, as planters throughout the country are ploughing up the bad stands and planting corn. The estimated crop cannot exceed one and a half million bales.

A Washington dispatch of the 16th, to the New York Tribune, gives a statement that the indictment under which Jeff Davis will be tried has been drawn to meet the provisions of the act to punish treason, passed July 17th, 1862, the second section of which provides that "any person who shall hereafter set on foot, or engage in any rebellion against the authority of the United States, shall be imprisoned not exceeding 10 years, or be fined not exceeding $10,000 and the liberation of all his slaves." It is also stated that Justice Field of the Supreme Court, (who left New York May 11th for California,) has expressed the opinion that the section above referred to repeals all previous provisions of the law for the punishment of treason.

The New York Tribune says that without the authority of law President Johnson, among his earliest acts of reconstruction, ordered the sale of Government railroads and railroad running stock, iron and materials to an enormous amount to Southern men, on credit, he directed the Quartermasters in charge to turn over the property, and take the purchasers' notes, payable monthly, up to two years, the value of the property thus nominally sold, but in reality given away, was probably $200,000,000. Of course the notes, as they fell due, were not paid, and it was never intended they should be paid. They are under protest here in Washington by millions. The President refuses to permit proceedings to compel payment, or to recover possession of any portion of this immense amount of the public property.

The Boston Journal of May 19th has the following. The ship St Joseph, which arrived at this port a short time since, took on board while loading at Liverpool a box marked "sodium," and the officer who received it was requested to stow it in a dry place, and in case he apprehended anything from fire to throw it overboard. It was accordingly stowed on deck in a convenient spot. The captain, however, considered it a dangerous article, and soon after leaving port, the weather growing boisterous, he became more excited about it and determined to get rid of it. The mysterious box was brought aft and thrown overboard from the stern of the ship. The moment it struck the sea a terrible explosion took place, throwing up a huge volume of water and threatening destruction to everything within a radius of its power, but fortunately no damage was done. It is not known what the box contained, but it is generally believed to have been filled with nitro glycerine.

Grant has instructed Military Department Commanders to abolish the Districts under their command as rapidly as circumstances will permit. In some cases he has recommended the conversion of the district into a military post. Every means which may consistently with the welfare of the country, be used to reduce the number of volunteers yet in service, has been adopted.

Garibaldi has written a letter to the "Democratic Society" in Greece, in which he says: "I will serve the cause of Greece with the same devotion as that of my own country, and I regard you as brothers. Let the ancient land of Leonidas throw off the yoke of its oppressors, and the brightest day of my life will be that in which I am able to take a place in your ranks."

The House has refused to increase the tax on distilleries, and to reduce the tax on distillers of less than 50 barrels per annum. This indicates that the sentiment of the House is adverse to the stringent law regulating distilling reported by the committee, and which is substantially the same as that reported by the Revenue Commission. This action will probably prevent the receipt of any such large revenue from distilled spirits during the fiscal year as has been anticipated by Controller Clarke and others.

The Suez Canal Company has at length obtained from the Turkish Government a firman sanctioning the contract between the late Viceroy of Egypt and Mr Ferdinand de Lesseps. The Khedive, aided by all the influence the French Government could bring to bear upon that of Turkey, had long made strenuous efforts to obtain this sanction, but Lord Palmerston, an inflexible enemy of the enterprise, had succeeded in prevailing upon the Porte to withhold it. The present English Ministry is believed to have abandoned the opposition to the canal, and the Sultan, therefore, was enabled to gratify the Emperor of France. The firman recognises the greatness and utility of a work which will "give new facilities to commerce and navigation," and which it proclaims "one of the most desirable events of this century."

John Bell is despondent. In a recent letter to the Nashville Union and Advertiser, he gives it as his opinion that the Union, as contemplated by the Constitution, no longer exists, and expresses apprehensions that free institutions are in danger, if the designs of the radical cabal controlling Congress be not soon abandoned or thwarted. He draws also a vivid picture of the future which awaits the people of the South in the embrace of such a government as is being established. Notwithstanding the gloomy prospect, however, he counsels forbearance and endurance on their part, and rests his chief hope on the return of sanity among the misled people of the North, and the overthrow of the ambitious leaders, whose course would drive any but a noble and patient people to desperation. Poor old Mr. Bell! It would have been a blessed thing for his fame if he had died before the rebellion.

Colonel Jacques, of Illinois, has just been tried on the indictment found against him in Kentucky for rape, and triumphantly acquitted. None of the witnesses summoned on his behalf were examined, but the case was submitted on the testimony of the prosecution without a word of argument from the counsel for the defendant. The Indianapolis Journal says: "The wretches who undertook to swear Col. Jacques into the penitentiary succeeded in convincing the jury that they were a graceless pack of liars, and so completely demolished themselves that no testimony was needed on behalf of the accused. He was prepared to prove, by some of the best men in Illinois, that he was in the State at times when some of the witnesses testified to his presence in Louisville, and his participation in the alleged crime, and by others that he was in this city on a certain day in which it was sworn by a prosecuting witness he was in Louisville, but the proof was unnecessary."

A Washington dispatch says: Lieutenant-General Grant's letter asking for an increase of the army, which was sent to Congress lately by the President, will be found as interesting as it is pointed and brief. It sets forth the importance of a prompt increase of the peace establishment so far as the army branch is concerned, with a view to protecting the overland emigrant route and the mining settlements thereon, and the maintaining of a "small military force" * * * * "in all the States lately in rebellion," for the reason that "the difference of sentiment engendered by the great war which has raged for four years, will make the presence of a military force necessary to give a feeling of security to the people." The Lieutenant-General proceeds to state that the white volunteers whom he has been compelled to retain in the service, for want of sufficient force of regulars, have become useless because dissatisfied with their retention after the war was over. He expresses his entire approval of the Senate bill recognizing the army, which has already passed that body, but is antagonized in the House by one reported by Gen. Schenck. Gen. Grant's recommendation will probably command the assent of the House at an early day.

Gen. Scott, who had returned to the North from his winter's Southern tour, visited West Point on the 10th of May. The occasion was taken advantage of to honor the veteran hero by the officers of the army on duty in the harbor of New York. Gen. Van Vliet placed at the disposal of the General the government steamer C. W. Thomas. The Lieutenant General was accompanied by two members of his staff, who served in Mexico under him, Colonels Munroe and Van Buren; also by Major Generals Pleasanton, Butterfield, Potter, Van Vliet and Vogdes, and a select party of prominent civilians. Gen. Vogdes sent the band of the First regular artillery with the company. On passing Castle William, Governor's Island, a salute of 13 guns was fired, by order of General Butterfield, in honor of the hero of two wars. At dinner on board the steamer toasts in honor of Gen. Scott were drunk with much enthusiasm by all the party. The Lieutenant General expressed himself much indebted to all for their courtesy and kindness. On the way up the river every steamer honored the Lieutenant General by salutes and dipping their colors. Passing Stony Point a place famous in revolutionary story, and Henry Hawgens Of a place well remembered by many living West Pointers, the band played appropriate airs. On arriving at West Point the Lieutenant General was received with due honors by General Cullum, Col. Black and Capt. Boynton. The cadets were out on parade and presented a fine appearance.

NEGRO EDUCATION IN THE SOUTH.—A writer in the Jackson Mississippian devotes a lengthy article to the question of negro education. He estimates that there are remaining in the Southern States one million negroes to be educated, of whom three hundred thousand, at least, are now ready to enter school. The sudden change in the condition of the blacks, he says, has not made fools of them. They have accepted their freedom rationally, gone to work with alacrity, and disappointed, as he confesses, the expectations of those who professed to know more about the negroes than anybody else—their late masters. It is worthy of remark, in passing, that these people who assume to have such intimate knowledge of the negro continually disappoint themselves. They were sure the negroes, even if granted the opportunity, would not desert them, the bond of affection between master and man being so strong that nothing but death could dissolve it. In this they were disappointed. Then, the negro would not work if made free. He needed the "stimulus of physical authority"—the overseer, the whip and the gang—to overcome his constitutional tendencies to inertia. It was only the Yankee—the Abolitionist—who insisted that the blacks would work when made free, if fairly paid and humanely treated, with more alacrity than in a condition of servitude. Time proves the Yankee to have been right, and the confession of the writer in the Mississippian is an acknowledgment of it.—St Louis Cor. Alta Californian.

THE ARMIES OF EUROPE.—"War and rumors of war" are constantly pronounced in the Old World, and all the powers seem to be making ready. We append herewith the strength of the different nations: Austria is preparing with 621,982 men; Prussia claims nearly as many, 622,868; Saxony has only 32,711; Bavaria, 100,247; Hanover, 26,909. What they would all do for money it is impossible to say. Prussia is said to have nearly £15,000,000 saved, if true, even that would fly like wildfire, and loans would be hard indeed to obtain, with such an incendiary war raging, the end of which no man could clearly calculate.

CARLYLE'S "CROMWELL."—I should say, also, of that protectorate of Oliver Cromwell's—notwithstanding the abuse it has encountered, and the denial of everybody that it was able to get on in the world, and so on—it appears to me to have been the most salutary thing in the modern history of England, on the whole. If Oliver Cromwell had continued it out, I don't know what it would have come to. It would have got corrupted, perhaps, in other hands, and could not have gone on; but it was pure and true to the last fibre in his mind, there was truth in it when he ruled over it.

One of the papers praises Mr. Stephens of Georgia, for his "eclectic statesmanship." On reading this, Smith asked Jones, "What is an eclectic?" Jones replied, "An eclectic is a person who practices every system and understands none."

PLAINLY PUT.—The Sonora, (Cal.) Herald has another part to act with the "conservatives," as will appear by the following from that paper:

"Let the past be forgotten." We have time and again heard the above words made use of by men who pr tess to be loyal, but who, in fact, are no better than the vilest Copperhead who, during the late rebellion, rejoiced at the energy the devil had gifted him with, in going and and comforting the fiends in human shape, wretches who hesitated not to murder, pillage and destroy, who applied the torch to sleeping towns and villages unmindful of the cry of help coming from women and children, enshrouded in the flames which they kindled, who cast their prisoners into dungeons as bad, if not worse than the Black Hole of Calcutta, and the ones starved them to death, often immolating them with disease the most foul and loathsome, and when any of them became deranged for want of food and attempted to cross the Dead Line in hopes of finding bones to gratify their hunger, or a draft of fresh water to shake their thirst, they were shot down like dogs by the those diabolical traitors. Our pen is too feeble to portray the many outrages those southern ghive have been guilty of.

"The post-office in our village," writes a Vermont lady, "was kept in the bar-room of the tavern—a great resort for loungers. An old chap more remarkable for his coarseness and infidelity than his good manners, was sitting there one day with a lot of boon companions, when the Methodist preacher, a new comer, entered and asked for his letters. Old Swipes asked bluntly, 'Are you the Methodist parson just come here to preach?' I am,' pleasantly replied the minister. Well, said Swipes, 'will you tell me how old the devil is?' 'Keep your own family record,' quickly returned the preacher, and left the room amidst the roars of the company."

The St. Paul (Minn.) Press indicts a keen cut thus:

The wire is down again. It is an affliction but it has its compensations. For when we don't get any dispatches we don't get any of President Johnson's moderate and intolerable last speeches.
